“Roads are made, streets are made, railway services are improved, electric light turns night into day, electric trams glide swiftly to and fro, water is brought from reservoirs a hundred miles off in the mountains — and all the while the landlord sits still.”

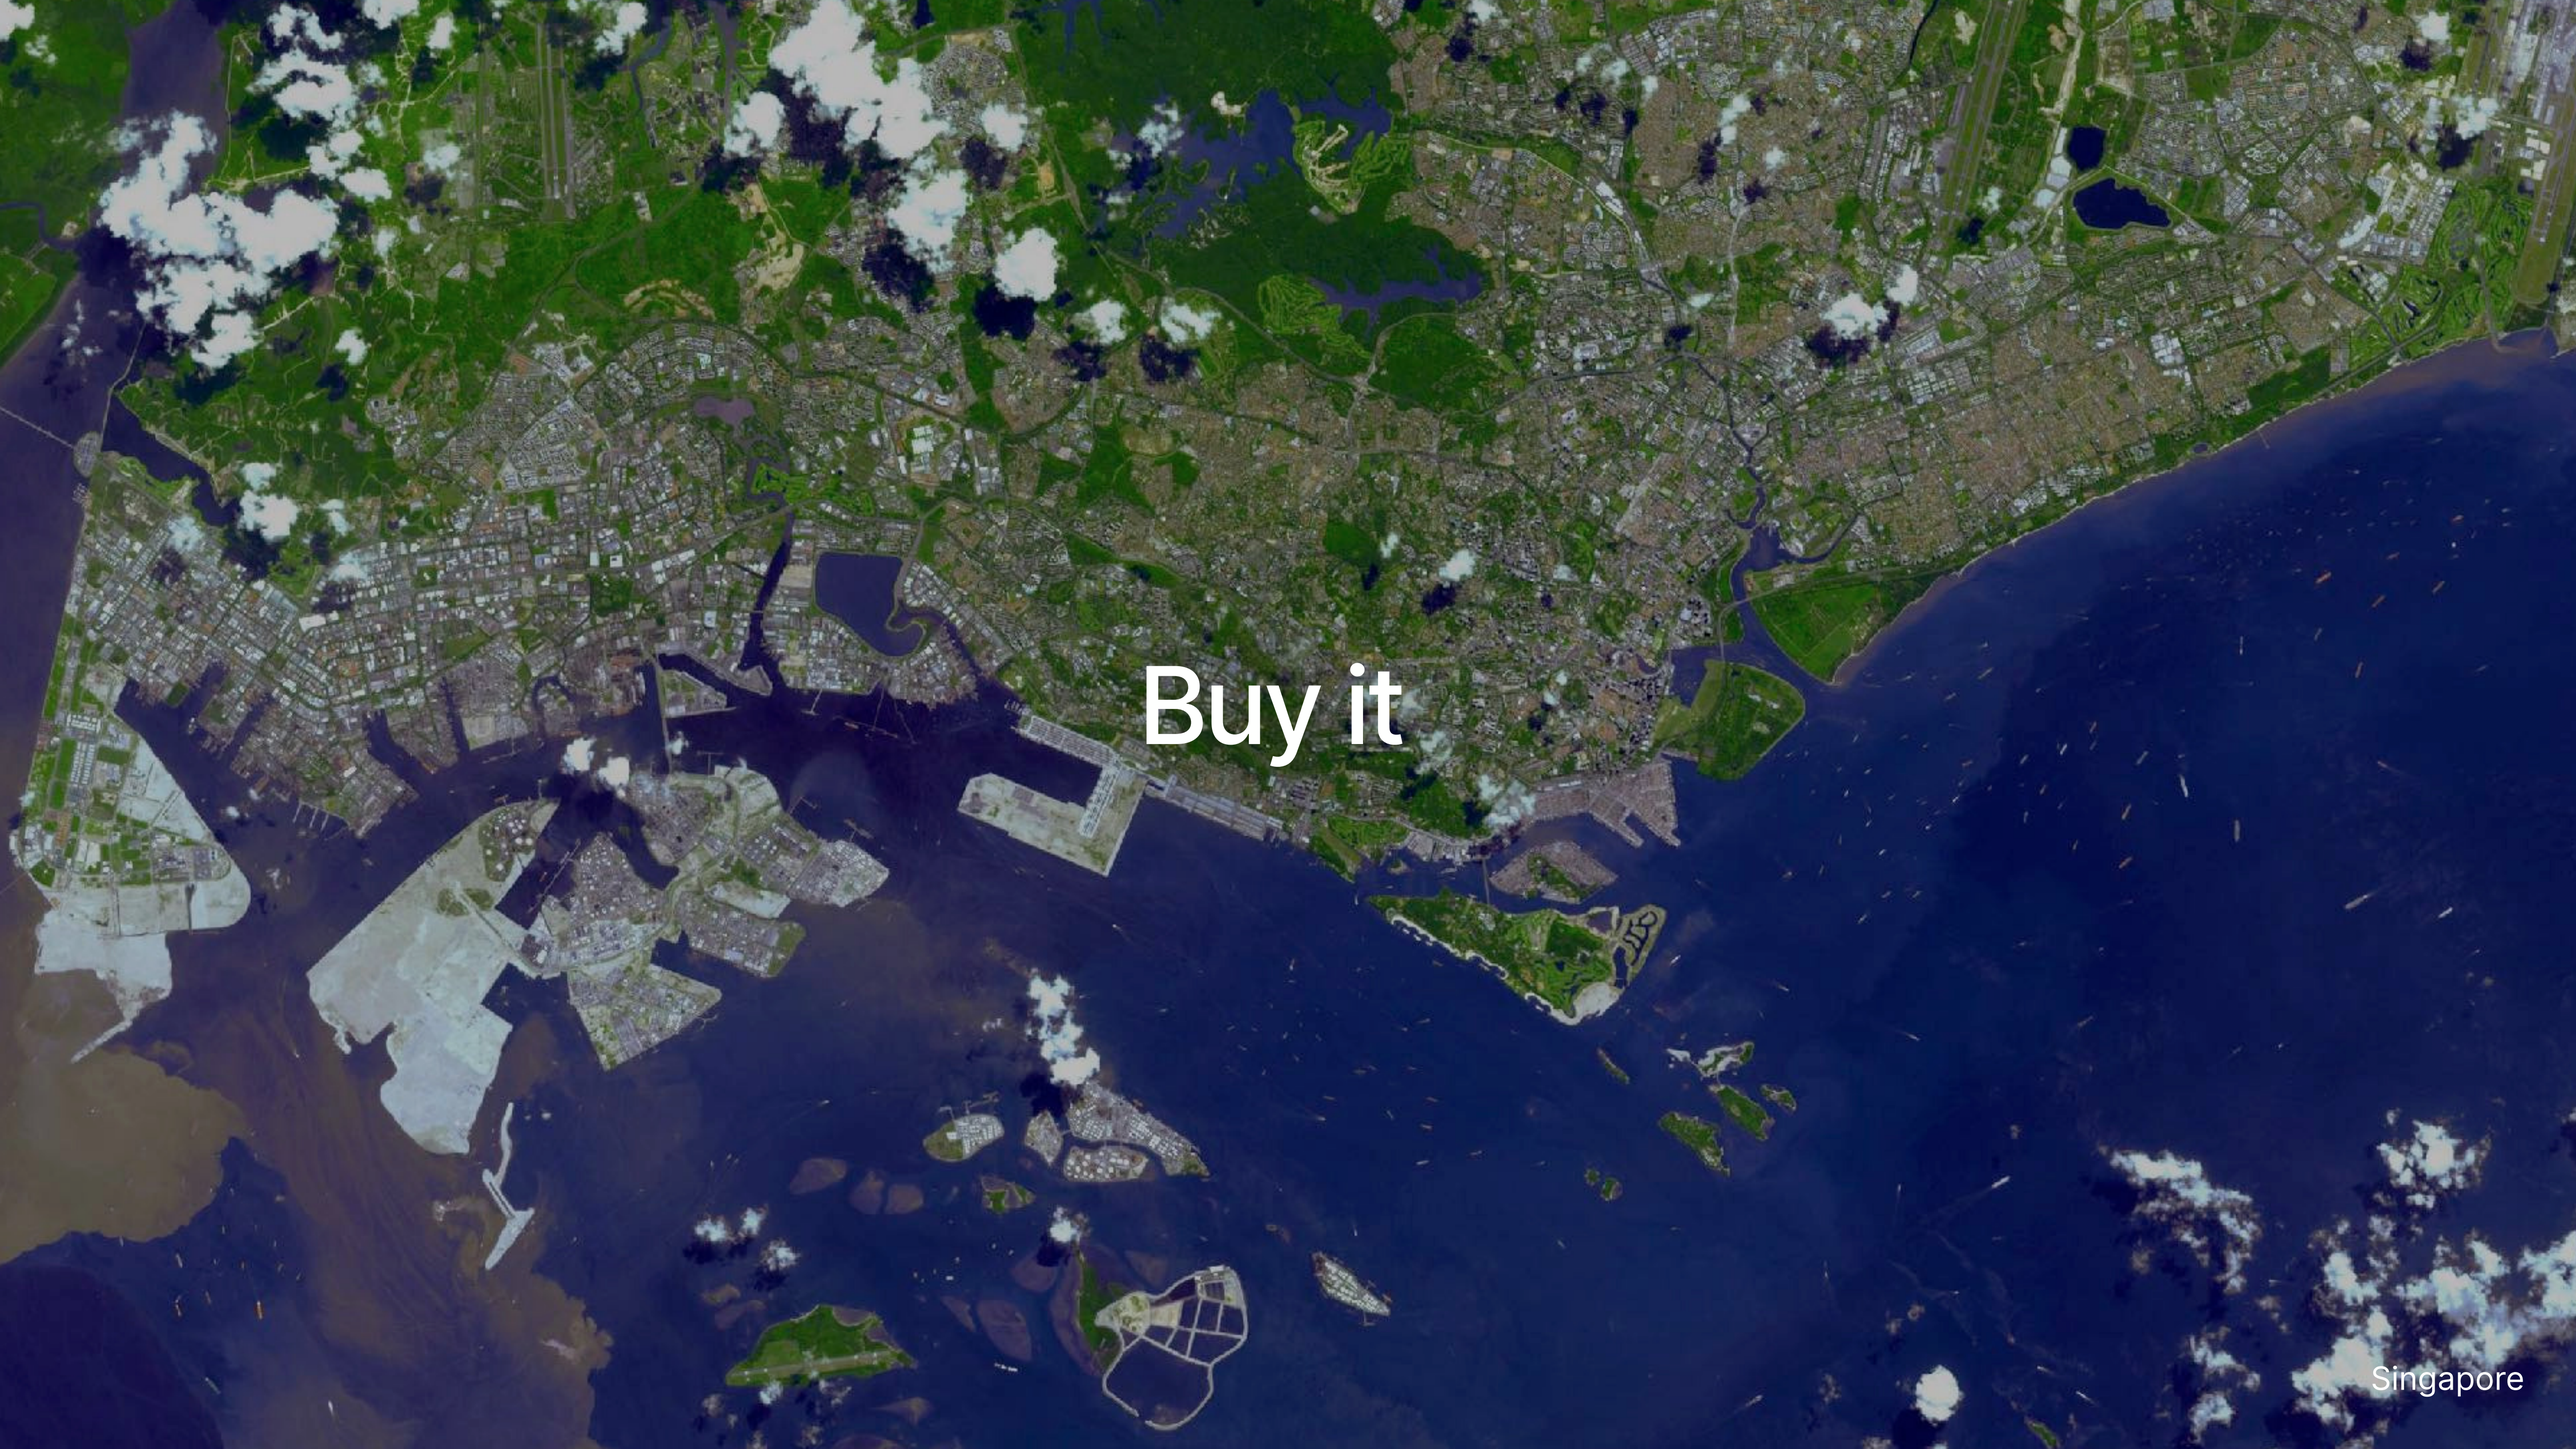

— Winston Churchill
The Mother of All Monopolies speech, 1909

"EVERYBODY WORKS BUT THE VACANT LOT"
I paid $3600. for this lot and will hold till I get $6000. The profit is unearned increment made possible by the presence of this community and enterprise of its people. I take the profit without earning it. For the remedy read
