Welcome to HM Courts & Tribunals Service, Possession Claim Online service.

Possession Claim Online (PCOL) is HM Courts & Tribunals Service's Internet based service for claimants and defendants.

- PCOL is a simple, convenient and secure way of making or responding to certain types of possession claim on the Internet.
- A Civil Procedure Rules Practice Direction governs the type of claims that can be issued using the PCOL service. We recommend that you familiarise yourself with this and the contents of the User Guide before commencing issue.
- With PCOL you can keep an eye on the status of your Claim, Judgment and/or Warrant.
- You will be asked to pay the fees to issue Claims and Warrants online by Debit or Credit Card. If you use this service regularly you may be able to register to pay fees by Direct Debit.
- You are unable to use this service if you are applying for 'Help with Fees' for money off your court fee.
- PCOL has been designed to be easy to use from a computer and is supported by a Customer Help Desk.
- Court diaries for claims issued within PCOL are viewable online. Click this link if you are interested in viewing the Court Diary.

PCOL will be unavailable from 14:30pm on Saturday, 7 February 2026 to allow for essential maintenance. The application will be available again on Sunday, 8 February 2026.

Tenants

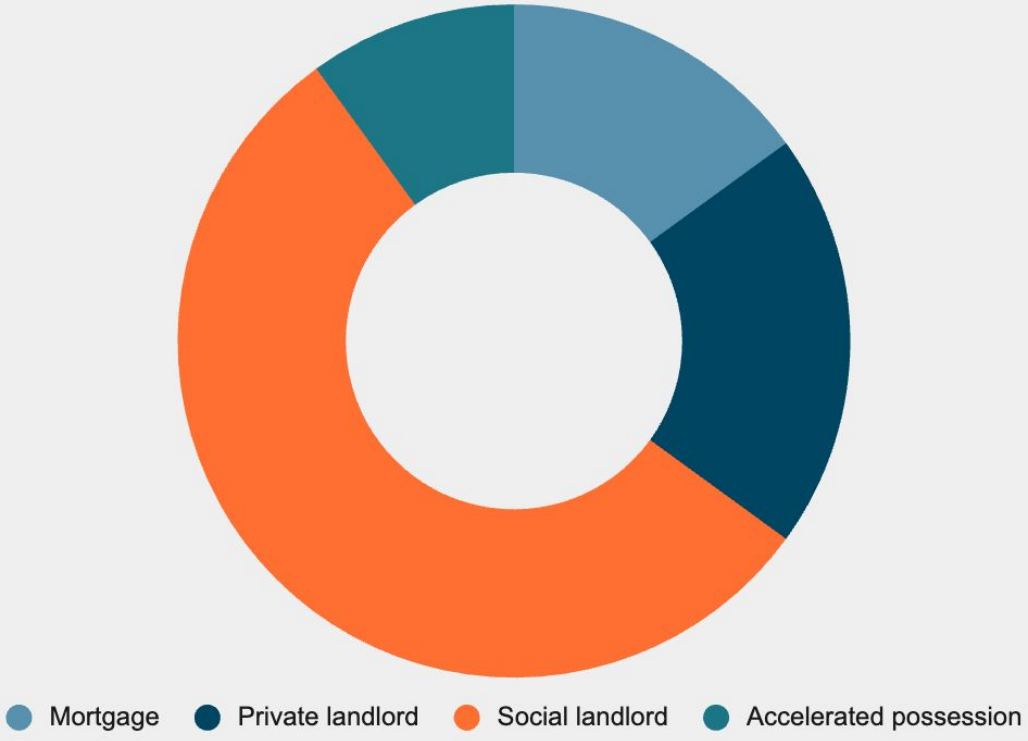

“I was broke, and they were evicting me. There was a court hearing, but I didn't go. There was no point in going, I was broke. I was burying my head in the sand and needed support from a human."

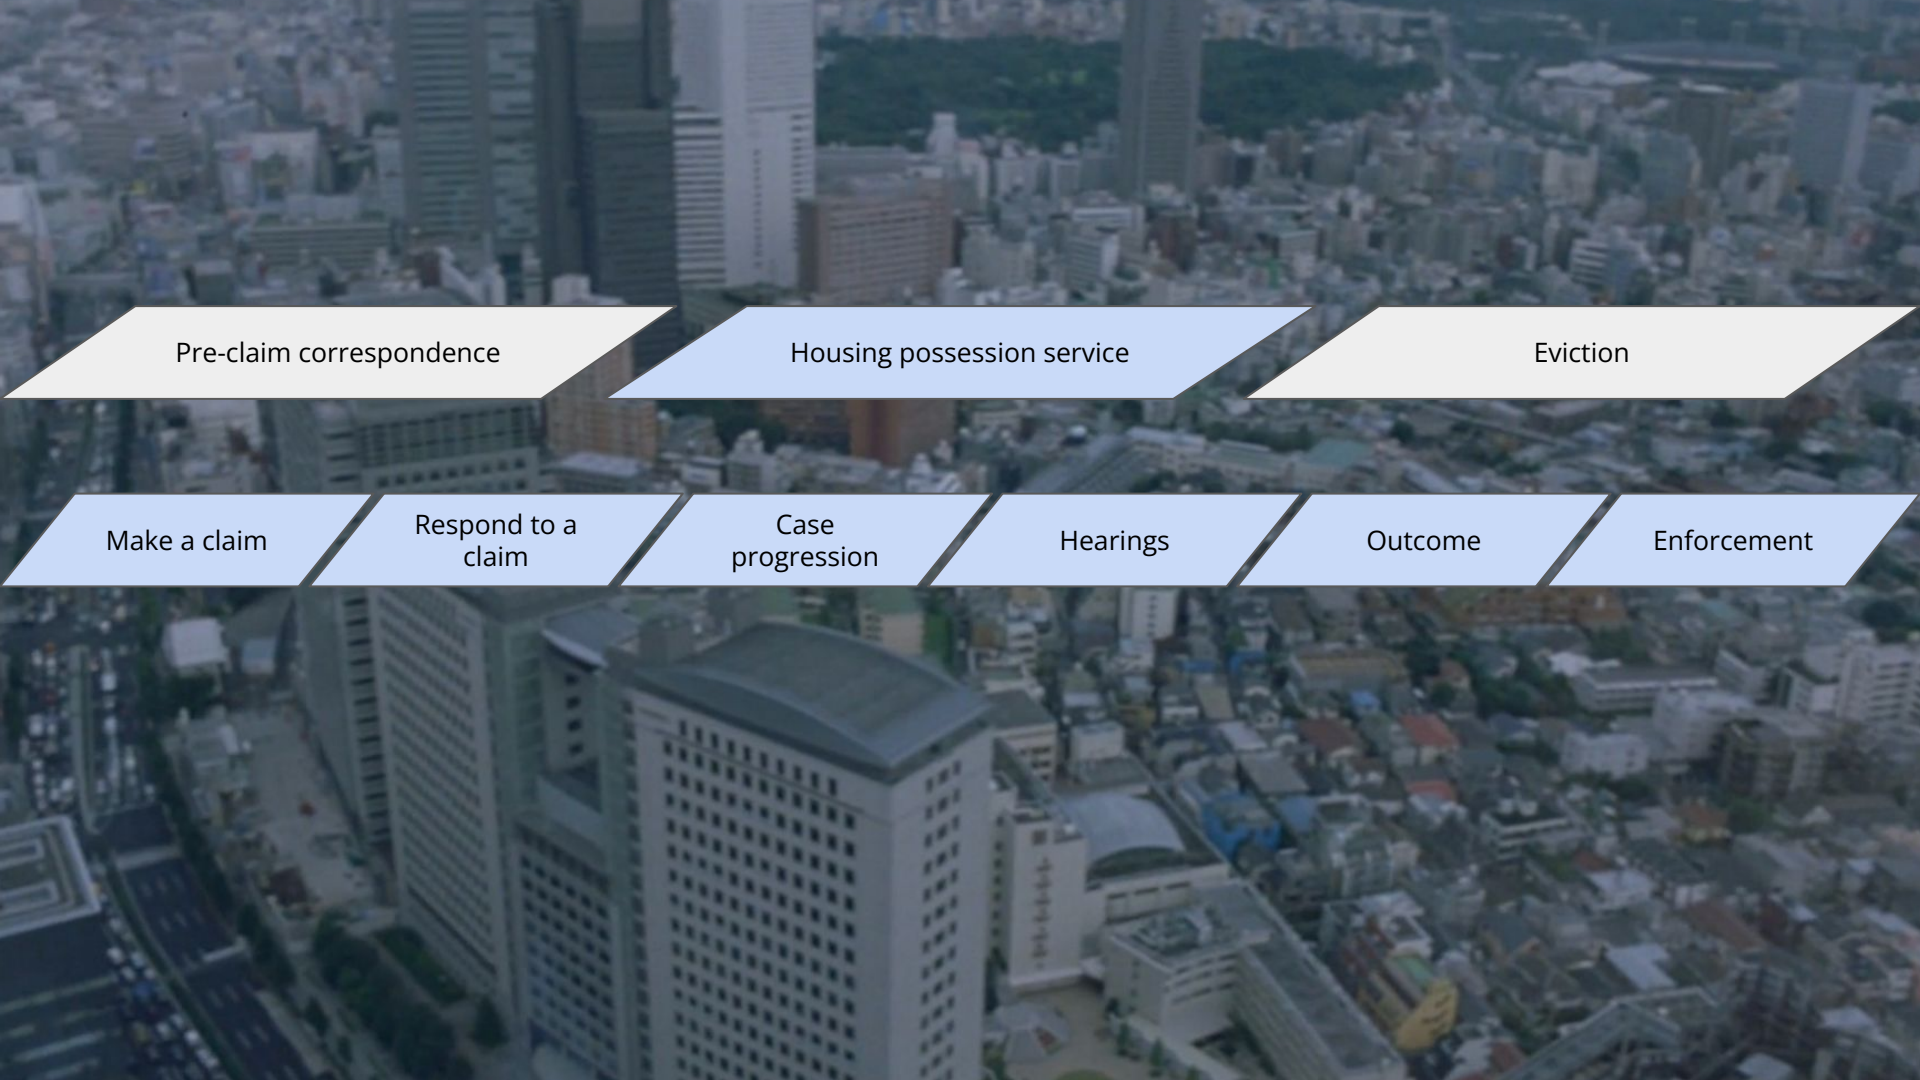

Landlords

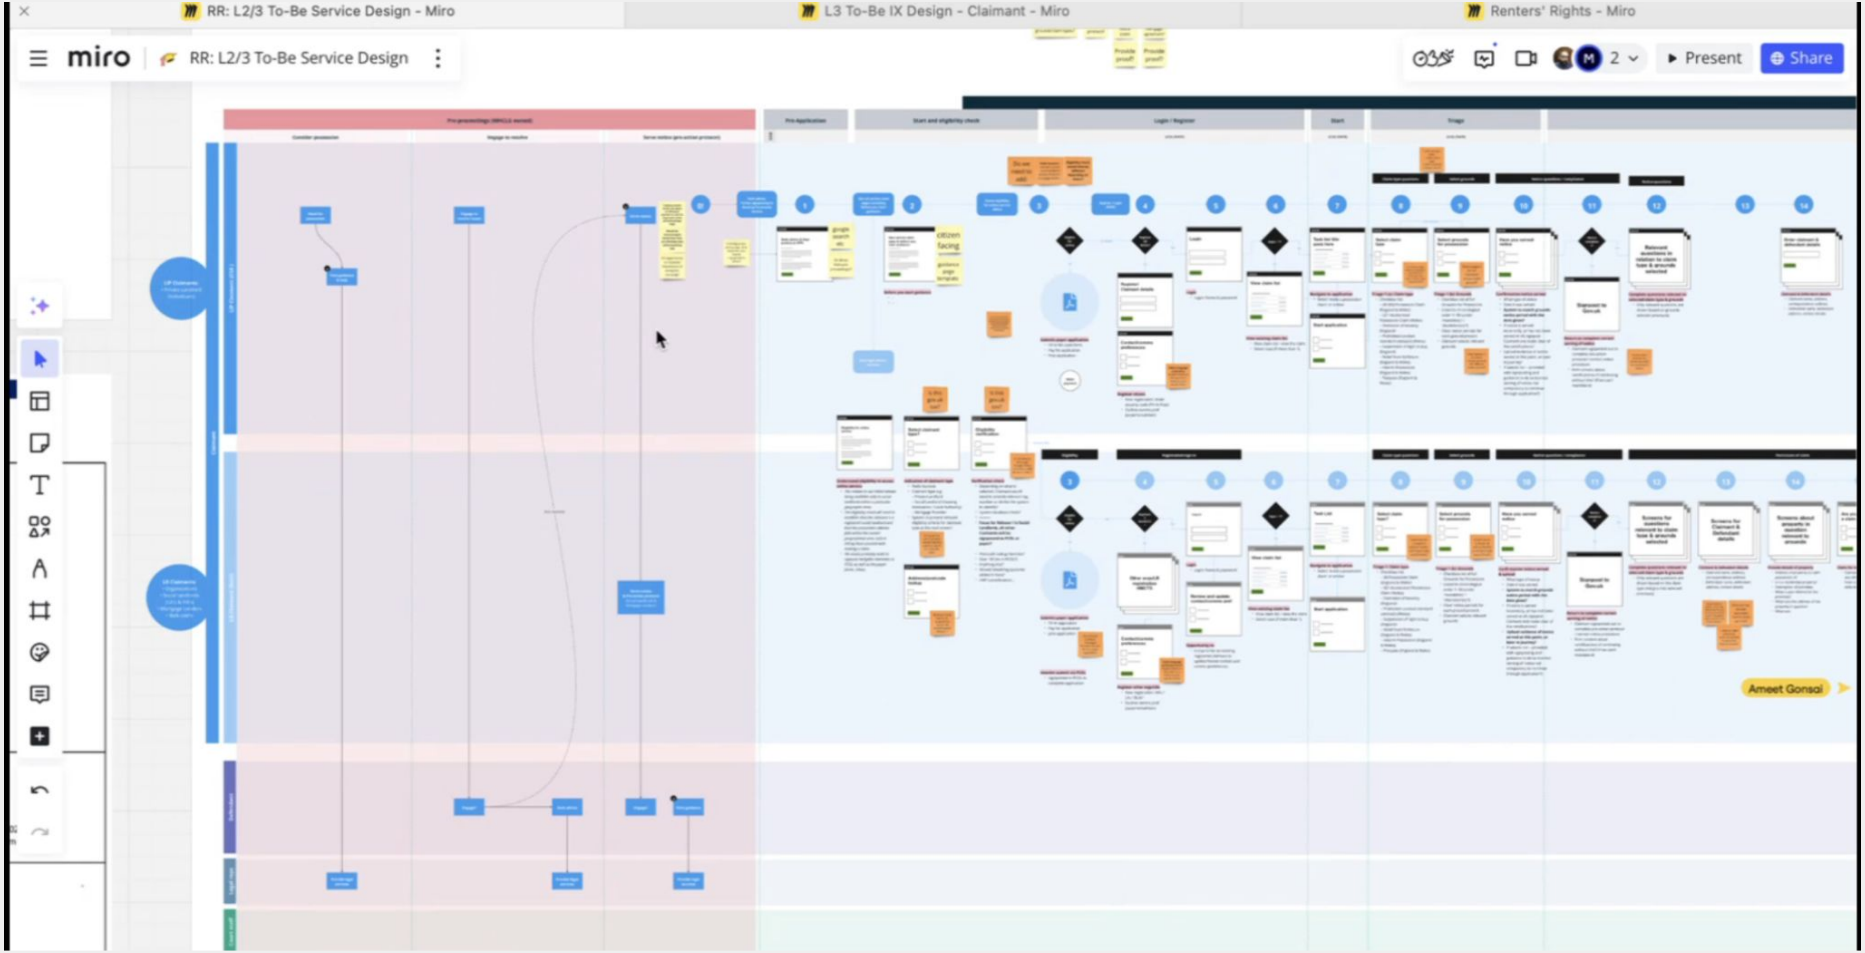

“My tenant set fire to the house! I filled out all the forms online, and it seemed to work ok, but on hearing day in court, the judge said he hadn’t received any of my documents!”
