Renting sucks

It’s cold, dangerous, and miserable

to me, OC

Dear Sava,

I hope you are well, the year has gone by so quickly, it's perfectly fine that you do not wish to renew the contract you will be missed.

In terms ending the tenancy, whilst in the fixed term you do not have a break clause so the notice would begin from the 6th December, I confirm your vacate date would 06/01/2026

I look forward to hearing from you soon

Kind regards,
Dishal

Great experience with One Click Homes! The team delivered excellent service from start to finish. Communication was clear and consistent, the process was simple and well documented, and the pricing was very competitive. I was kept fully up to date throughout, which made everything

OC Homes made moving to London incredibly smooth and easy. It was truly a pleasure working with Nav and Camron – they were solution-oriented, always available, and genuinely helpful throughout the entire process. I felt supported every step of the way. Highly recommend their services!

I had an excellent experience with OC Homes Leyton Estate & Letting Agents while securing my new apartment. From the initial enquiry through to viewing, payment, and contract signing, the entire process was handled efficiently and transparently.

Nav, the agent who facilitated my letting, was particularly outstanding. He was professional, patient, and consistently responsive. Even on occasions when he missed my call, he always returned it promptly and spoke courteously, taking the time to address every question clearly. This level of communication made the process far less stressful and built a lot of trust.

Repairs at my flat ain't getting done.
Had no hotwater for 2 yrs

We have been reporting a faulty boiler for over a year and have been left without reliable access to heating.

I have a very strong suspicion that my tenancy is illegal but my only income is Universal Credit so I'm scared to ask.

Rats, mice, mould, ceiling leaks, possible fire hazards.

This is real data, these are all from the last two months. This is happening to people within a mile of us.

We need an integrated platform to bring accountability to the rental sector at scale.
